

Berlin-Werbellinsee

Surrounded by Nature

Lake Werbellinsee is set in the 100 acre Schorfheide National Park, a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve located 60 km to the northeast of Berlin. This holiday resort, popular with Berlin locals longing for nature, is a great place to relax while having fun. Despite its apparent tranquillity, Lake Werbellinsee's area is conducive to challenging yourself and exploring new sports activities!

Located on Berlin's doorstep, our course centre benefits from easy access to the vibrant cultural scene of this avant-garde European capital.

The pleasant climate, clear water, lush green forest and fresh air make it a charming region to discover. With the wealth of activities on offer, this is an ideal location to learn German or English and to fully enjoy the summer.

Our course centre

Ideally located on the banks of Lake Werbellinsee, our centre is surrounded by the forest, set in a vast protected estate of more than 100 hectares, where nature and lake prevail. The centre has its own beach, sports hall, beach volleyball courts, large-screen movie theatre and kiosk as well as many other sports and leisure facilities. Each bedroom has a private bathroom with shower. Classrooms are perfectly fitted for stimulating language teaching and located only a few metres away from the bedrooms. All of the major Berlin attractions are within easy reach thanks to our weekly excursions.
